____ PHIL HAQUETTE SUED. Paintings May Go to Pay for Medical Treatment. The Narcotism Hospital Company filed an attachment suit yesterday against Phil and Sophie Haquette in Justice Spaulding's court for $100. The suit is on a note given by Haquette and his wife for treatment of Mr. Haquette at the plaintiff's hospital be-fore his recent departure for San Francisco. Cal. Haquette was for many years engaged in the saloon business in St. Louis and is now in business with his brother in San Francisco. Haquette's wife did not accompany her husband to San Francisco, but remained liv-ing in their flat, at No. 222 Cabanne avenue. It was her intention, it is stated, to rejoin her husband as roon as he became settled in business. Some valuable patotings were part of the furniture attached by order of the LOST JEWELRY ON THE FLOOR. Brokers Dropped Watches in the Excitement.

Yesterday was an exciting day at the Merchants' Exchange, and, in consequence, brokers were unusually careless. After the close a gold watch, one silver watch, a gold ring and a fine gold medal were picked up from the floor and turned over to Secretary Morgan.

The ring was found to be the property of Thomas Dunn of the Western Union Telegraph Company, but the two watches and the medal are still awaiting their owners.
